Men's Ice Hockey Player of the Week

Michael DeMayo, Trinity

DeMayo was named MVP of the Assumption Holiday Tournament after scoring three goals over two games and leading the Bantams to the tournament title. DeMayo had two goals in a 6-3 victory over Becker on Monday, then netted a goal in an 8-1 win against Assumption on Tuesday. DeMayo is second for Trinity in scoring with eight points with a team-high six goals and two assists.

Notes: Amherst sophomore forward Matt Rhone (Dedham, Mass.) had a goal and two assists during the St. Michael's Holiday Classic. Rhone posted a goal and an assist in a 4-1 win over Fitchburg St. on Friday followed by an assist in a 3-2 setback to Nichols on Saturday...Bowdoin finished as runners-up at the 2008 Salem St. Hockey Classic, defeating Salve Regina 5-1 in the opening round before falling to the host Vikings in overtime, 4-3...Colby's Billy Crinnon collected a goal and an assist in a 4-1 decision over Southern Maine on Friday. Crinnon leads the Mules in scoring with four goals and three assists for seven points...Connecticut College is unbeaten in its last six games (5-0-1) heading into Tuesday's contest against Manhattanville in Danbury, Conn...Middlebury rookie Charlie Strauss (Eagle River, Wis.) tallied two goals and two assists during the Middlebury Holiday Classic, earning All-Tournament Team honors...Wesleyan senior goaltender Mike Palladino (Litchfield, Conn.) stopped 79-of-85 shots faced during the Cardinal Classic at Plattsburgh St., a save percentage of .929. Only one of the six goals he yielded was an even-strength tally...Williams freshman netminder Ryan Purdy (La Jolla, Calif.) made 19 saves in a 2-0 shutout of Wesleyan on Saturday, his first collegiate shutout.
