NESCAC Women's Ice Hockey Player of the Week

Britney Carr, Bowdoin

(Senior, Forward - Conway, N.H.)

Bowdoin senior Britney Carr scored five goals and assisted on three others in three Polar Bear wins last week. Bowdoin has out-scored opponents 63-5 in eight straight wins.

Notes: Sophomore forward Renee Sisti netted two goals and dished out four assists in the Jeffs' three games last week. With her assist in Saturday's 4-1 loss to Bowdoin, she extends her current streak to six-consecutive games with a point...Colby's Heather DeVito, who missed the first three games of the season due to illness, had a hand in three of the Mules' four goals in a 1-1 week. She had one goal and one assist in a 3-1 victory over Connecticut College and had Colby's lone goal in a loss to Amherst...Connecticut College sophomore goalie Gabby Petrill had 119 saves for the Camels this week, raising her season total to 561. She leads all Division III goaltenders in this category. Petrill stopped 44 shots, including 24 in the third period of a critical 4-3 victory over Amherst Tuesday night. Petrill added 41 saves against Bowdoin Friday night and made 34 stops against Colby Saturday. The sophomore netminder has amassed 1,317 saves in 39 games played...Senior Eden Self and junior Marissa Halligan had a goal and an assist apiece in a 0-2-0 week for Hamilton at ninth-ranked Williams College. Self needs one point to become the third player in the program's history to record 100 points in a career...Abby Kurtz-Phelan scored the game-winner as Middlebury came from a 2-0 deficit to defeat #1 Plattsburgh, 3-2...Mimi MacKinnon allowed one goal in each game as Trinity split a two-game set with Buffalo State. MacKinnon made 14 saves in a 1-0 loss and stopped 18 shots in a 2-1 win the next day...Junior forward Anna Siliciano had a pair of goals and senior defender Tasha Clauson had a goal and an assist to help Wesleyan beat Sacred Heart. Rookie goalie Meredith Katz is now 4-1 since taking over the starting job...Molly Wasserman scored three goals and assisted on another as Williams swept a two-game set with Hamilton.
